Applicants are not required to give any information prohibited by Federal, State or Local Law. This application will be given every consideration, but its receipt does not imply that the applicant will be employed. Applicants are accepted for employment on a trial basis with a probationary period, and if, in our judgment, it is found during this period that the employee is not adapted to the work assigned or that information had been misrepresented, the employment may be terminated without reason. In connection with this application, an investigation may be made requesting information as to your character and general reputation. Information as to the nature and scope of any investigation requested will be furnished to you upon written request.
